

Jumper wires do not lay flat so when there are multiple connections in a circuit it can sometimes be difficult to see all the connections clearly when troubleshooting.

TECHNICAL NOTE

Solid core wires lay flat and allow you to see the connections in the circuit a bit more easily when there are many connections.

